

FAA-PMA REPLACEMENT PARTS — LANDING GEAR

Evolution AEROSPACE, INC. knows landing gear systems and we understand the high cost, long lead times and often lack of alternative repairs available from the OEMs. We are extremely proud of our rich history of developing landing gear repairs including life extension programs that provide for long trouble free life on wing. Our variety of FAA-PMA Approved landing gear components spans a range from bushings and bearings, to axles and pins, as well as hubs, brackets, rig plates, compression rings, and placards. You can rely on us to provide the best FAA-PMA Approved landing gear components available on the market today.

- Numerous FAA-PMA Approved parts for the most common landing gear part requirements
- FAA Approved overhaul repairs for numerous aircraft platforms
- We've made thousands of landing gear repairs possible

And... we look forward to working with you if you have special requirements not on our current line card.
